What are cookies?

A cookie is a file that is downloaded onto devices when accessing certain websites, platforms or applications, in order to store and retrieve information while the user accesses their contents.

Cookies can serve very diverse purposes, such as recognising the user, obtaining information about the user's browsing habits, or personalising the way content is shown to the user.

Which cookies are used on this website?

The specific use made of cookies on this website is described below.

| Name | Who uses the cookies? | Type | Purposes |
|------------------|--|----------------------|---|
| LANG | First-party | Technical | Stores the user's language preference. |
| EW_CONSENT | First-party | Technical | Stores the user's cookie consent selection. |
| _GRECAPTCHA | Tercer +Learn about the third party | Technical (security) | Provides anti-bot and anti-fraud protection on forms. |
| _ga, _ga_*, _gid | Tercer +Learn about the third party | Analytics | Measurement and statistical analysis of website usage (Google Analytics). |
| _cn_*, cf_* | Tercer +Learn about the third party | Marketing | Personalisation and marketing actions (Connectif). |

| Name | Who uses the cookies? | Type | Purposes |
|-------------------------|--|-----------|---|
| _slaask*, intercom-* | Tercer +Learn about the third party | Marketing | Support chat and conversation history (Slaask). |

You can find out about transfers to third countries that, where applicable, are carried out by the third parties identified here, in their cookie policies (see the corresponding link under +Learn about the third party).

It will be considered that there is processing of personal data through cookies when the user has identified themselves through a name or an e-mail address that identifies them, or when unique identifiers are used that allow certain users to be distinguished from the rest and individually tracked. For additional and detailed information about the user's rights and the processing of their personal data carried out through the cookies of this website, you can consult the privacy policy here.

Acceptance, rejection and configuration of cookies

As indicated in the previous section, you can give your consent for the use on your device of all cookies:

- By clicking the "Accept cookies" button on the cookie banner available on this website, or
- By clicking the "Accept all" button in the cookie configurator of this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy, or
- By selecting all the options provided and then clicking the "Save configuration" button in the cookie configurator of this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy.

On the other hand, as indicated in the previous section, you can reject your consent for the use of all the aforementioned cookies on your device:

- By clicking the "Reject cookies" button on the cookie banner available on this website, or
- By clicking the "Reject all" button of the cookie configurator of this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy.

Please note that if you accept third-party cookies, these must be deleted from the browser options or from the system offered by the third party itself for that purpose.

We remind you that you can delete the browsing history (including cookies) of your browser, by consulting the options and instructions provided by your browser.

You can choose at any time, from among the aforementioned cookies, which cookies you allow and which cookies you reject for use on the device, and give your consent for that purpose. In the cookie configurator of this website you can enable the cookies you decide to allow on the device, or prevent the activation of those cookies you decide not to allow on the device, by selecting or deselecting them respectively and then clicking the "Save configuration" button.

In addition, you can access additional information on how to enable, delete and/or manage the use of cookies, through the corresponding browser, as indicated below:
